Numb. 11612.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 7, to Saturday November 11, 1775

St. James's, November 11.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Cheſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Groſvenor, Eſq; One of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of your ancient and loyal City of Cheſter, (ſeeing with deep Concern, that thoſe conciliatory Meaſures tendred by your Majeſty's Benignity, with the Approbation of the Great Council of the Nation in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, to your rebellious Colonies in America, have not only failed to bring them back to their Duty, and to acknowledge the Supreme Power of the Britiſh Parliament over them, but that, encouraged by the daily Publications of factious Subjects at Home in their Favour, they have denied that Power, and made ſuch warlike Preparations to reſiſt all Attempts to enforce it, as plainly ſhew they aim at Independency, and to bid Defiance to that Power which firſt raiſed and hath ſince ſupported them) cannot help therefore declaring our Abhorrence of Proceedings ſo ſubverſive of all Order and good Government.

We are convinced, from the experienced Clemency of your Majeſty's Government, that (your Parliament being now aſſembled) if any other Meaſures than thoſe already offered (conſiſtent with the Honour and Dignity of your Majeſty's Crown and Parliament) can even yet be ſuggeſted to heal the Wound given by the American Rebellion to the Britiſh Conſtitution, your Tenderneſs and Affection for all your Subjects will permit them to be held forth to America, to cloſe that Scene of Blood, which, from fatal Neceſſity, will follow the Refuſal of the American Provinces to return to their Obedience.

We entirely approve the Wiſdom of Parliament, for aſſuring your Majeſty of their firm Reſolution to grant you all ſuch Supplies as, with the Aſſiſtance of Divine Providence, may enable you to enforce that Duty and Allegiance, which mild and gracious Offers have failed to obtain; and to which we declare we will with all Chearfulneſs contribute, till the Right and Authority of Great Britain over her Colonies ſhall be ſettled on a ſolid and laſting Baſis.

Given under our Common Seal, this Second Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five.

Thomas Griffith, Mayor.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Aſſiſtants, Common-Council, Free-Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town of Colcheſter in the County of Eſſex, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Charles Gray and Iſaac Martin Rebow, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Aſſiſtants, Common-Council, Free-Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town of Colcheſter in the County of Eſſex, beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty, on Occaſion of the unhappy Diſturbances in your Majeſty's Colonies, which have at length broke out into actual and open Rebellion.

While we ſincerely lament the fatal Effects of this unnatural Conteſt, we do with all Humility aſſure your Majeſty, that we are firmly reſolved, on every Occaſion, to pay a due Obedience to the Legiſlative Authority, and to ſupport and defend your Majeſty's Perſon and Government to the utmoſt of our Power.

May the Divine Providence bleſs your Majeſty's Councils with ſpeedy Succeſs in defeating the Deſigns of all the Enemies of their Country, and in reſtoring Peace and good Order in every Part of your Majeſty's Dominions.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, Town-Council, and Incorporations of the Royal Burgh of Dumbarton, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Lord Frederick Campbell, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, Town-Council, and Incorporations of the Royal Burgh of Dumbarton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magiſtrates, Town Council, and Incorporations of the Royal Burgh of Dumbarton, ſenſible of the many Bleſſings enjoyed by us of this Country, in common with thoſe of your Majeſty's other Dominions, during a Reign remarkable for its Moderation, feel the greateſt Abhorrence of that unnatural Rebellion, which has been encouraged by ſome licentious and deſigning Perſons at Home, and which now rages with ſavage Cruelty in your Colonies in America.

It is with the deepeſt Concern that we obſerve the Neceſſity to which the Parent State is reduced, of correcting theſe ungrateful and undutiful Children by vigorous Meaſures; and we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ready, and will chearfully do all in our Power, to vindicate and ſupport the Dignity of your Crown and Perſon, and the Rights of your People, againſt theſe deluded Rebels.

Signed at Dumbarton, the Fourth Day of October 1775 Years, in Name and by Appointment of the Magiſtrates, Town-Council, and Incorporations of the Burgh, by James Colquhoun.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Renfrew, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Lord Frederick Campbell, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Renfrew,

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of the Burgh of Renfrew, with the warmeſt Affection and utmoſt Humility, beg Leave to declare our entire Satisfaction with your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government.

When the greateſt Part of your Majeſty's Colonies in America are in actual Rebellion, ſtirred up by ſome reſtleſs and ſeditious Spirits among themſelves, who have impoſed on the People, and under the Pretence of Liberty have in a Manner aboliſhed all Liberty and lawful Government; and while they are unnaturally aided and abetted by a diſappointed Faction at Home, we think it our Duty to declare our Abhorrence of theſe Proceedings, and that we are ready to lay our Lives and Fortunes at your Majeſty's Feet, to ſupport your juſt Right, and the Authority of your Parliament over America.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by John Paterſon, Provoſt.

Renfrew, October 28, 1775.

The following Addreſs of the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff, and Jurats of the Royal Court, the Dean and Clergy, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Iſland of Guernſey, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Sir Jeffery Amherſt, Knight of the Bath, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff and Jurats of your Majeſty's Royal Court, the Dean and Clergy, and other Principal Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Iſland of Guernſey, impreſſed with the deepeſt Concern to ſee ſo great a Part of our Fellow-Subjects, in your extenſive Dominions of North America, ſo far deluded and loſt to the Senſe of a juſt and legal Dependance on your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, as to forego, by an unwarrantable and criminal Reſiſtance to the Conſtitutional Legiſlative Authority of your Realms, that Proſperity and Happineſs, which they, in common with your Majeſty's Subjects in Europe, ſo fully enjoyed, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Sacred Majeſty, that however we may be moved by Sentiments of Humanity, to lament their Folly and Blindneſs, we ſhall ever abhor and deteſt ſuch atrocious Attempts to ſubvert, under your auſpicious Sway, the mildeſt and beſt of Governments.

The Wiſdom and Juſtice of your Majeſty's Counſels, ever ſince your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, have been ſo conſpicuous, that we look forward with Confidence and well-grounded Hopes, that the ſame juſt, prudent, and vigorous Meaſures, which have ſo happily diſtinguiſhed your Majeſty's Reign on the moſt difficult Occaſions, will, on this, bring the ſeditious and rebellious Chiefs, and their Adherents, to a peaceable and dutiful Submiſſion; teach them, that a State of Independance is a State of Anarchy and Confuſion, and therefore full of Calamities; that their own and Country's Importance and Proſperity ſolely depend on the Protection of Great Britain; that to leave them to themſelves would be leaving them, as in the Times of ancient unſettled States, a Prey to their own Civil Broils, and the Victims of wicked and ambitious Men; that to return to their Allegiance to your Majeſty, and due Submiſſion to the Laws, is their only Happineſs, and their only title to your Majeſty's Clemency: May your Majeſty, by their unfeigned Repentance and ſincere Return to their Duty and Loyalty, ſoon have Occaſion to exert, in their Favour, that benign Apanage of Royal Authority, and which your Majeſty has at all Times ſo chearfully extended to the Imprudent and Unfortunate.

But as the Attainment of that deſirable End muſt be much accelerated by the hearty Concurrence of your faithful Subjects at home, to the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Meaſures, we deem it our indiſpenſable Duty, in ſo important a Circumſtance, humbly to aſſure your Majeſty of our Fidelity and Loyalty to your Majeſty, and of our Zeal, Affection, and firm Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Family, and Government; in Support of which, we ſhall ever be ready to ſacrifice every Thing we hold moſt dear: That your Majeſty may long reign over a free, dutiful, and happy People; and that your Royal Sceptre may regularly deſcend to your Auguſt Line, to the End of Time, is the ſincere Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Sacred Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful
And moſt faithful Subjects,

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Kirkcudbright has been preſented to His Majeſty by William Douglas, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Kirkcudbright, deeply ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our Abhorrence of that daring Spirit of Licentiouſneſs, ſo much encouraged and fomented by wicked and deſigning Perſons, in different Parts of your Empire; hurtful to the State, and deſtructive of that true Conſtitutional Liberty, under which all good Subjects live contented and happy.——And that it is with Concern and Indignation we obſerve the baneful Influence of this Spirit upon many of your American Subjects, now in a State of actual Rebellion, and openly avowing a Revolt from that natural Connection and Dependance, which all the Colonies ought neceſſarily to have with and upon the Parent State;——A Rebellion as wicked and flagitious, as it is unprovoked and ungrateful.——We therefore humbly requeſt your Majeſty's moſt gracious Acceptance of this Teſtimony of our Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government; and pray, that ſuch Meaſures may be purſued, by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty and your Parliament, as may moſt ſpeedily and effectually reſtore and ſupport Obedience to the Laws, and Peace, Union and Proſperity in your Majeſty's wide extended Kingdoms; over which, unimpaired by Foreign or Domeſtic Foe, may your Majeſty, and your illuſtrious Houſe, reign glorious to lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the Shire of Drumfries, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Major Robert Laurie, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the Shire of Drumfries, in Quarter Seſſion aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with earneſt Aſſurances of our ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and firm Reſolution to ſupport the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, and the Conſtitution of our Country, againſt all open and diſguiſed Enemies.

We have with Indignation and Abhorrence beheld a Set of factious Men in your Majeſty's American Dominions, endeavouring to ſet in Oppoſition the Executive and Legiſlative Part of the Conſtitution; and, under the Pretext of Grants derived from the one, to claim Abſolution from their Allegiance due to the other. While they endeavour to aſſert Principles ſo totally ſubverſive of ſound Government by Force of Arms, we cannot look on the Profeſſion they make of Reverence to your Majeſty in any other Light than as empty Sounds; and we conſider them as equally Enemies to your Majeſty, the Liberty of their Fellow-Subjects, and the Peace and Tranquility of the Britiſh Empire.

Actuated by theſe Sentiments, we conceive it our indiſpenſible Duty to exert every Effort to protect your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, to re-eſtabliſh Peace and Concord throughout the Britiſh Empire, to give Vigour and Energy to the Operation of Law, and to aſſert and vindicate that Syſtem of Government that has been handed down to us by our Anceſtors.

In the preſent Criſis we muſt lament, that the Part of Britain in which we live is deſtitute of the internal Defence which a well-regulated Militia would produce; had we been poſſeſſed of ſuch a Safeguard to your Majeſty's Government and the Liberty and Tranquility of the Country, the Military Force that may be proper for our Security might have operated againſt the Enemies of your Majeſty in every Part of your Dominions.

That your Majeſty may be long preſerved to diſappoint the Deſigns of your open and ſecret Enemies, that you may tranſmit to your Poſterity the Britiſh Empire undivided, and ſecured by that excellent Conſtitution by which it has hitherto been cemented, and that your Majeſty's Family may continue to the End of Time, to reign over a free and happy People, is the earneſt Wiſh of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful
and devoted Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Common-Council of the Burrough of Annan, has been preſented to His Majeſty by William Douglas, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Common-Council of the Burrough of Annan.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Common-Council of the Burrough of Annan, behold with Abhorrence the ungrateful Conduct of your Majeſty's American Colonies, who are aiming to throw off their Dependence on the Mother Country.

We humbly requeſt your Majeſty's moſt gracious Acceptance of this Teſtimony of our Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government; and pray that ſuch Meaſures may be purſued by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty and your Parliament, as may moſt effectually reſtore and ſupport Obedience to the Laws.

That your Majeſty may long reign over a free and happy People, and tranſmit your extenſive Dominions undivided to your Royal Iſſue to lateſt Poſterity, is the ardent Wiſh of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects,
The Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Common-Council of the Burrough of Annan.

Annan, November 1.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, Common-Council, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Town of Dumfries, has been preſented to His Majeſty by William Douglas, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magiſtrates, Common-Council, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Town of Dumfries, deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the Ingratitude of a Number of the Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Dominions in America, both towards your Majeſty and the Mother-Country, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Attachment to your Majeſty, and utter Abhorrence and Deteſtation of thoſe treaſonable Seditions that have of late been raiſed in that Part of your Majeſty's Dominions.

Perſuaded as we are that thoſe Commercial Purpoſes, to which your Majeſty's Colonies in America owe their Original, can never be anſwered but by maintaining a proper Dependance of thoſe Colonies on the Mother-Country, and vigorouſly aſſerting the Authority of the Legiſlature when reſiſted or contemned by the Coloniſts, nothing that is in our Power to contribute ſhall be awanting, to aid and aſſiſt your Majeſty in following out ſuch Meaſures as may be moſt effectual for aſſerting the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, and the Supremacy of the Britiſh Legiſlature over every Part of the Britiſh Empire.

Attached as we have ever been to the Principles of the glorious Revolution, and the Succeſſion of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe, we cannot, without the utmoſt Concern, perceive any of your Majeſty's Subjects acting upon Principles ſubverſive of that Conſtitution, which has, ſince the Succeſſion of your Majeſty's Family, ſecured to us the moſt ineſtimable of all Bleſſings, Liberty and pure Religion. And as it becomes every Britiſh Subject to ſet Life and Fortune at nought, when theſe, or the Conſtitution by which they are ſecured, are attacked, ſhould it be neceſſary for us to hazard both on the preſent Occaſion, we truſt that we ſhall not be found backward to ſacrifice them, to maintain the Conſtitution in the ſame State it has been handed down to us by our Anceſtors.

That your Majeſty may be long preſerved to reign over a free and united People, and that the Britiſh Empire may be tranſmitted undivided to your Majeſty's Royal Iſſue to lateſt Poſterity, is the ſincere and ardent Wiſh of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects,

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Knights of the Shire, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others, Freeholders of the County of Southampton, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Goodyer St. John, Eſq; High Sheriff of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly: And he had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Knights of the Shire, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others, Freeholders of your County of Southampton, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, to expreſs our firm and unfeigned Attachment to your Sacred Perſon and Government.

We acknowledge, with the utmoſt Gratitude, the very many Bleſſings which your People have enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, and we behold, with an equal Degree of Concern and Abhorrence, the Repoſe of the State diſturbed by a Part of your American Subjects, who have been led by a Spirit of Deluſion and Sedition into ſuch violent Proceedings againſt the Legiſlative Authority of this Country, as are no leſs repugnant to their Duty and Allegiance than ſubverſive of their own Intereſt, and the general Weal of this great and extenſive Empire.

We aſſure your Majeſty that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, ſupport you in eſtabliſhing and maintaining the Authority of the Legiſlation of this Country over every Part of the Britiſh Dominions; and we moſt ardently wiſh that, by the Wiſdom and Vigour of your Majeſty's Councils and Meaſures, the preſent unnatural Rebellion may ſoon be ſuppreſſed; and that general and permanent Tranquility may be reſtored to your Majeſty's People and Government.

The following Addreſs of the Bayliff, Steward, Approved Men, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Andevor, in Common Council aſſembled, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir John Griffin Griffin, Knight of the Bath, and Benjamin Lethieullier, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Thh humbie Addreſs of the Bayliff, Steward, Approved Men, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Andevor, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Bayliff, Steward, Approved Men, and Burgeſſes of your antient Borough of Andevor, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, to teſtify the Abhorrence we have of the rebellious Revolt of many of your American Subjects, under the falſe Pretence of aſſerting Rights they never had, but, in Reality, with a Deſign of caſting off their Allegiance to your Majeſty, and their Dependance on the Britiſh Empire, of which they are an undoubted Part.

We have too much Reaſon to fear, that the Spirit of Diſobedience, now raging in this diſtant Part of your Majeſty's Dominions, with all the Madneſs of Arbitrary Riot and Cruelty, hath been worked up to its preſent alarming Criſis, by the artful Inſinuations of ſome deſigning Leaders, who have themſelves other Purſuits in View, than what their deluded Followers may perhaps as yet ſuſpect: We truſt, and do moſt ſincerely hope, this will eventually turn out to be the Caſe, and that theſe unhappy and miſguided Men will ſoon ſee the fatal Tendency of their raſh Proceedings, and return to their Duty: And we are the rather inclined to hope this, as we cannot conceive, that any Number of Men here, or in America, who have felt the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's mild and gentle Sway, can, when they come coolly to conſider the Conſequences, wiſh to exchange it for any other.

It is to your Majeſty, and to the illuſtrious Princes of the Houſe of Hanover, your Royal Predeceſſors, that we, and all your Subjects at this Time, in a great Meaſure owe that Enjoyment of true legal Liberty, which we believe no Nation in the World can boaſt of but ourſelves. That the ſame Conſtitutional Liberty, which we feel, may be felt by all other your Majeſty's Subjects, in all the Parts of your wide extended Empire, and that every Member of it may acknowledge the Sovereignty of Great Britain, is the inceſſant and moſt ardent Wiſh of our Hearts. And in order to obtain the Accompliſhment of this Wiſh, we do aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall moſt heartily concur, as far as in us lies, in ſupporting your Majeſty in all ſuch Meaſures as in your great Wiſdom you ſhall think neceſſary to take, to bring back your rebellious Coloniſts to a Submiſſion, in Deed as well as Words, to your Majeſty's Government, and to the Legiſlative Power of the Britiſh Parliament.

Given under our Common Seal the Seventh Day of November, in the Sixteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Juſtices, Aldermen, Common-Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Lord Barrington and Sir Charles Hardy, Knight, their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Juſtices, Aldermen, Common-Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Juſtices, Aldermen, Common-Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſteady Attachment to your Perſon and Family, in theſe Times of publick Commotion. We reflect with Gratitude on the many Bleſſings diſpenſed to us by your Majeſty's Goodneſs, and obſerve with the deepeſt Concern the calamitous Effects of that Spirit of Diſcontent which prevails among your Subjects in America, and is encreaſed to ſuch a Degree as to produce all the Evils of a Civil War in that Quarter of your Dominions. Arduous Queſtions of Government, of which we are incompetent to judge, we do not affect to decide, we leave them to your Majeſty, aſſiſted by the great Council of the Nation, in Confidence that the Powers veſted in You by the Laws of your Kingdom, will ever be directed towards the Attainment of the great End of their Inſtitution, the Good of your People. And we perſuade ourſelves that under the Influence of Meaſures, concerted with Wiſdom and executed with Firmneſs and Moderation, the Coloniſts will be brought to a juſt Senſe of their Duty, that good Order will be re-eſtabliſhed among them, and that Peace and Harmony will take Place throughout the Britiſh Empire.

Permit us further to aſſure You, Sir, that we contemplate with Abhorrence every Propoſition that is inconſiſtent with the Idea of your Majeſty's perfect Security on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, becauſe we look up to your Majeſty as the faithful Guardian of thoſe Liberties which were recovered by the Revolution, have been protected by your illuſtrious Family, and which, we truſt will be preſerved entire to us and our Deſcendants.
